RICHMOND WOMAN SEES PRESIDENT ON SUFFRAGE

Mrs. D. E. Hooker Acts as Spokesman for Congressional Union and for Federation of Labor.

WILL TRY TO "REACH" HUGHES

Chief Executive Says That Democratic Platform Means That Question Shall Be Decided by States and Not by Federal Action.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—An interpretation of the suffrage plank of the Democratic platform was sought from President Wilson today by Mrs. D. E. Hooker, of Richmond, acting as spokesman for the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage and the Virginia State Federation of Labor.

She left the White House with the report that the President stated the plank meant the question should be decided by the States, not by Federal action, and still held to his refusal to urge the passage of the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment to the constitution.

Mrs. Hooker presented suffrage resolutions adopted by the Virginia labor convention favoring passage by Congress of the Baker resolution providing a constitutional amendment.

"The President said that he hoped the Democrats in writing the St. Louis plank would not be accused of 'indecency and bunko,'" said Mrs. Hooker. "He also said he hoped the plank meant what it said."

She also quoted Mr. Wilson as stating that he was a friend of the suffrage movement, and sympathized with it, but still felt it was a question first of the States, and that suffrage forced upon a State would not be well received, and would hurt more than help the cause.

Mrs. Hooker said Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee, also would be "reached" by suffrage workers.

Can Thoughts Be Photographed?

The holiest and wisest of books says: "As a man thinketh, so is he."

Thought lies hidden in the human brain—and it holds the secret of personality, the real self of every individual, the record of the past, and the intention that shapes the future.

Now comes science, reaching far into the dim mystery of human mind, and says that Thought can be photographed—that the most secretly hidden deed can be recorded on a sensitive plate, and held up for the world to see.

You can witness it all in the seventh episode of the "Mysteries of Myra," where Payson Alden, quick-brained and keen-eyed, draws on his immense scientific knowledge and procures startling evidence in this way from a disguised member of the Black Order.

Baltimore Fights for Reserve Bank

Bill to Review Action of Organization Committee Laid Before Maryland Senator.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WASHINGTON, June 21.—Charles Markell, counsel, and Robert J. Becham, secretary of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association of Baltimore, today laid before Senator John Walter Smith, of Maryland, the tentative draft of a bill giving the Federal Reserve Board the power to review the action of the organization committee in the location of regional reserve banks.

If this bill is passed by Congress it will overcome the opinion of Attorney-General Gregory to the effect that the organization committee's having with respect to the location of these banks cannot be changed. The measure, therefore, makes it possible for Baltimore to renew its application that the bank now located at Richmond be transferred to Baltimore.

PARADE AT FREDERICKSBURG

Many Organizations Take Part in an Enthusiastic Preparation.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] FREDERICKSBURG, Va., June 21.—A preparation parade was held here to-night participated in by Company K, Second Virginia Regiment, the Mayor and City Council, Chamber of Commerce, Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Confederate Veterans, Woodmen of the World, Daughters of America, city fire department and Boy Scouts.

The line of march was down Princess Anne Street, up Main and Commerce to Park, where the Sons of Veterans band gave a concert. Everybody carried flags. Captain M. R. Rowe was chief marshal, with Conway Chastner and Stuart Roper as aids.

TODAY'S BEAUTY HINT

It is not necessary to shampoo quite so frequently if your hair is properly cleansed each time by use of a really good shampoo. The easiest to use and quickest drying shampoo that we can recommend to our readers may be prepared very cheaply by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthar, obtained from your druggist, in a cup of hot water. This rubbed into the scalp creates a thick lather, soothing and cooling in its action, as well as beneficial to scalp and hair. After rinsing the scalp is fresh and clean, while the hair dries quickly and evenly, developing a bright luster and a soft fluffiness that makes it seem very heavy.—Advertisement.
